Capt. J. F. Baker and Lieut. F. T. Peel, of the Canada 190 Versiont The supply of beeves at 44th street was not quite so large at the opening as it was one week ago, and on this account brokers advanced the price &c. per lb. on the best droves. There were several lots of very superior cattle which have had no counterpart for weeks, and which sold for very high prices, because they were very superior animals. One lot, especially, a superior drove of heavy grade Durhams, fattened in Bourbon county, Ky , cost their owners $160 per head at Buffalo, and unless sold for more than 1sc per lb. here, they would love money; but run out at $190@210, and the best at $2173. worthy of note that the highest priced cattle are the
